

1 to 1 Learning November 26th 2009

@ St Albans Meadows PS

www.samps.vic.edu.au

St Albans Meadows PS, an innovative school involved in both the Ultranet trial and the Catalyst initiative, presents a thought provoking half day session on the challenges, rewards and realities of working daily in a 1:1 environment.

This half day workshop will include:

- An understanding of why 1:1 is part of the future of learning
- Strategies to allow implementation of a 1:1 program
- 1:1 Pedagogy
- Opportunities to visit classrooms implementing a 1:1 program
- Opportunities to talk to students and teachers involved in the program
- Classroom setup
- Technical considerations
- Time for Questions

Please contact, Simon Shaw at shaw.simon@edumail.vic.gov.au or 9364 6144 for further information. Limited places available.

Are you interested in 1:1 learning?

Following the success of the 1:1 Professional Learning sessions in 2008, St Albans Meadows is proud to offer these sessions again in 2009. Join us to explore the possibilities of 1:1 Learning.

Testimonials

A fantastic PD - well worth the travel! It's great to see laptops in action in the classroom and to have some practical ideas for what can be done on them.

Teacher - Primary School

It was great to see the technology in action. A very inspiring PD. Thanks!

Teacher/Year Level Coordinator

Totally awe inspiring to see what you are doing and how well the kids are responding.

Principal

Thanks for an informative session. I now have a far greater understanding of a 1:1 program.

IT Coordinator

I came home full of ideas - I think it was one of the best PDs I've attended.
